Profile

HomeKit Solutions is a trusted name in the building hardware industry, known for its commitment to quality, craftsmanship, and customer satisfaction.

Founded with a clear vision by Mr. Umesh Jain, HomeKit Solutions quickly established itself as a reliable provider of innovative door fittings and hardware products.

His passion and dedication continue to inspire the company's steady growth. Today, HOMEKIT offers a wide range of premium door fittings, crafted with precision and available in a variety of finishes to meet the diverse needs of our customers.

Our strong focus on design, durability, and performance has helped us become one of the leading manufacturers in the Indian hardware sector.

Blending elegance with functionality, HOMEKIT products add style and security to homes across India. Driven by the trust and loyalty of our customers, HomeKit Solutions expanded its operations from a trading house to a fully equipped manufacturing base. Our long-standing experience in the industry enables us to deliver consistent quality and innovative solutions that match evolving market needs. At HOMEKIT, we believe in offering not just products, but experiences — bringing elegance, reliability, and craftsmanship into every home we touch
